

Awakenings

Facts That Led Me to Support the Palestinian Cause

Presented by

Neighbors For Peace

www.neighborsforpeace.net

SPEAKERS - followed by discussion with audience participation

Roxane Assaf

is Director of Studio Classrooms at Truman College in Chicago and Adjunct Faculty at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in media- and Middle East-related subjects.

Roxane freelanced in the Occupied Palestinian Territories for the Washington Report on Middle East Affairs magazine then completed a master's degree from Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism, corresponding from Washington, DC, for the CBS TV affiliate KNOE in Monroe, Louisiana, WATD radio in Boston, and North Carolina's Durham Herald-Sun newspaper.

Esther Kaplan

is a radio and print journalist and a community activist. She is investigative editor at the Nation Institute and writes for The Nation, The American Prospect, The Village Voice, and other publications. For ten years, she has been co-host of "Beyond the Pale", a weekly radio program covering Jewish culture and politics on WBAI/New York, and she is the producer of "The Communique", which covers labor and public policy, on WNYE/New York. She is author of With God on Thier Side - George W. Bush and the Christian Right, 2005.

Stephen Lendman received a BA from Harvard University in 1956 and an MBA from the Wharton School at the University of PA in 1960 following 2 years of obligatory military service in the US Army. Spent the next 6 years as a marketing research analyst for several large US corporations before becoming part of a new small family business in 1967, remaining there until retiring at the end of 1999. He has since been involved in working for a more humane and just world for all people everywhere, but especially for the most needy, disadvantaged and oppressed.

2:00pm, Saturday, Feb 16, 2008

Evanston Public Library, Church St. and Orrington Ave.

This is a free event with donations accepted. Refreshments will be served